SCHOOL REPORT.

---

DISTRICT No. 1.

GRAMMAR DEPARTMENT.—Two terms. Taught by Frank P. Newman. The scholars were well instructed and made very good progress, but were not disciplined and governed as they should have been.

INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT.—Two terms. With the exception of the first four weeks, by J. Willard Newman. Instruction thorough, discipline good.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.—Two terms. By Abbie J. Davis who was very well fitted for the work. Very good progress was made, and had the discipline been a little more rigid the efforts of the teacher would have been in every way satisfactory.

DISTRICT No. 2.

One term. By Flora Brown, with good results.

DISTRICT No. 3.

Two terms. First quite successfully by Hattie E. Merrill. Think it was her first term. Second, by Annie C. Smith. District was fortunate in securing the services of this teacher. The school was a profitable one.

DISTRICT No. 4.

Three terms. By Etta F. Nichols. Instruction and discipline excellent.

DISTRICT No. 5

Three Terms. First, by Angie I. Marcy, who tried to do her best and succeeded very nicely; second, by Mary S. Ellenwood with good results; third, by Elmar M. Noyes, an excellent teacher, and the term was all that could have been desired.

DISTRICT No. 6.

Two Terms. First by Laura A. Gilmore. Her experience and faithful efforts gave to the district a very valuable school; second, by Addie E. Gould. Pupils made decided improvement. Miss G's methods of instruction were admirable, and had she been properly sustained in her efforts to govern the school, the discipline would have been entirely satisfactory.

DISTRICT No. 7.

One term. By Lucy F. Morse. A teacher of much experience and merit. The result of her services was a good school.

DISTRICT No. 8.

Two terms. By Alma C. Hadley. Very good progress was made. Order satisfactory.

DISTRICT No. 9.

Two terms. First, by Mary E. Hazen, second by Laurella Newman, both terms were highly creditable.

DISTRICT No. 10.

Three terms. By Clara H. Howard. Improvement very good. Deportment satisfactory.

DISTRICT No. 11.

Three Terms. First, by Annie C. Smith, a teacher of more than average ability. Progress and deportment very good indeed. Second and third, by Nellie S. McAlpine, a teacher of excellent methods and unusual energy. The examination was one of the best. B. F. N. is a very bright little scholar, exhibiting attainments rarely met with in one so young.

DISTRICT No. 12.

Two terms. First by Maude L. Burnham, and notwithstanding it was her first effort, she did very well. Progress and deportment very fair. Second by Sadie M. Holman. Miss H. is quite a thorough scholar and a very good disciplinarian, and carried the school through very successfully.

DISTRICT No. 13.

Two terms. First, by Ada H. Buxton. The progress made was very good—order fair. Miss B. is a very good scholar, and with experience will make a good teacher. Second, by Walter F. Felch who labored faithfully and conscientiously and accomplished all that could be expected.

DISTRICT No. 14.

One term. By Mary R. Merrill. Very satisfactory school. Teacher and scholars worked hard and accomplished much.

DISTRICT No. 15.

One term. By Mary R. Merrill, with good results.

DISTRICT No. 16.

Two terms. By Orlana R. Sturtevant. Improvement and deportment above the average.

DISTRICT No. 17.

Two terms. First by Sadie M. Holman, second, by Milton G. Starrett. Scholars well governed and quite thoroughly instructed.

DISTRICT No. 18.

Two terms. First, by Annie M. Kimball, second, by Susie M. Gay. Both teachers were faithful in their endeavors and a fair amount of success was the result.

DISTRICT No. 19.

One term. By Flora M. Brown. The scholars made thorough and rapid advancement.

That the town may be put to no unnecessary outlay for printing, I have endeavored to report as briefly as possible--omitting the usual general remarks.

Respectfully submitted,

BROOKS K. WEBBER,
S. S. Committee.
